14. A person who complies with 13 above, demonstrates to the Committee of Examiners acceptable evidence of good character by such means as the Committee of Examiners may reasonably require, and establishes to the satisfaction of the Committee of Examiners that the person holds one of the designations noted in 13 b) above, or passes examinations prescribed by the Committee of Examiners, may be registered as a regular member of the Association upon the payment of any fees, dues or assessments fixed by the Association.

Application for Registration as an Associate Member

15. A person who is qualified to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal but who is not required to register under the Act to engage in practice or provides a written undertaking not to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal, may be admitted as an associate member of the Association on proper completion of an Application for Registration as an Associate Member prescribed by the Rules, provision of the aforesaid undertaking, if required, and the payment of any fees, dues or assessments fixed by the Association.

Honourary Membership

16. The Association, as the Board may by resolution determine, confer honorary membership on any person who shows exceptional interest in the Association and has assisted the Association with the conduct of its affairs as a non-member.

Resignation

17. A person may resign as a member of the Association by providing notice in writing to the Registrar which notice shall state the effective date of the resignation, but a resignation shall not become effective until accepted in writing by the Registrar.
18. The Registrar shall not accept the resignation of a person as a member if a complaint in writing has been filed with the Registrar and the complaint is pending and has not been disposed of under the Act.

Classes of Membership For Fees

1. For the purpose of fees payable under subsection 19(1) of the Act, members shall be divided into three classes:
 - a) Regular Member, being a person who is required to register under the Act to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal. Such person shall pay the annual membership fees and annual registration fees, and shall have the right to exercise full privileges in the Association;
 - b) Associate Member, being a person who is qualified to engage in the practice of real estate appraisal but who is not required to register under the Act to engage in practice or does not intend to engage in practice. Such person shall pay only the annual membership fees, and shall have the right to exercise full privileges in the Association.
 - c) Student Member, being a person who, at the time of application is of legal age, is enrolled as a full or part time student in a recognized university course of study, has not completed the requirements for any designation, has not entered into the AIC Applied Experience Program with an appropriate mentor nor obtained relevant experience, and is not eligible for any other membership category in NSREAA. A student member may provide technical assistance or other support functions, is not permitted to sign reports, and is not eligible for liability insurance. A student member has no voting rights and cannot hold office at any level. This class does not replace the candidate member.

IV. MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting

1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such place and date, not later than April 30 of each year, as the Board may by resolution determine.

Special Meetings

2. Special meetings of the Association may be convened by order of the President or Vice-President, by petition signed by one-third of the members of the Board, or by petition of not less than twenty-five members.

Notice

3. (a) A notice stating the day, time and place of an annual or special meeting shall be delivered personally or by mail, e-mail or fax, to each member at the member's last address known to the Executive Director thirty days before the date of the meeting. In addition, notice may be included in the official magazine or newsletter published by the Association, or in any publication the Executive Committee may direct.
- (b) Notice of an annual meeting shall include an agenda of the items to be considered at the meeting.
- (c) Notice of a special meeting shall contain a specific statement of the business to be decided at the meeting, including the wording of any proposed motion to be voted on at the meeting.

Irregularities

4. The accidental omission to give notice to a member or failure to receive notice by a member shall not invalidate any resolution passed or any proceedings taken at an annual or special meeting.

Chairperson

5. The President shall preside as chairperson at all meetings of the Association, and in the absence of the President the Vice-President shall take the place of the President and act as the chairperson. In the absence of the President or Vice-President, a chairperson shall be elected as provided for in section 6 of this Part.

6. (a) In the absence of the President or Vice-President, those members of the Association present and entitled to vote shall choose another member of the Board as chairperson, but if no member of the Board is present, or if all members of the Board decline to act as chairperson, then the members of the Association present shall choose another member to act as chairperson.
- (b) If at a meeting a vote by ballot is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on the question of adjournment, such vote shall be taken forthwith, without adjournment.

Adjournment

7. The chairperson may, with the consent of the members voting at any meeting of the Association, adjourn the meeting from time to time, and no notice of such adjournment need be given to the members of the Association. Any business may be dealt with at an adjournment meeting which could have been brought before the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the meeting.

Quorum

8. Fifteen members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of businesses at all meetings of the Association.

Voting

9. (a) Every question submitted to an annual or special meeting of the Association shall be voted on in the first instance by a show of hands or by a standing vote, or by a secret ballot where requested. Any member can then demand a proxy vote, the results of which will be added to the vote or secret ballot.
- (b) At any meeting, unless a ballot is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has been carried or defeated unanimously or by any particular majority, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

- (c) All matters to be voted on by the membership shall require a majority vote to pass, except the following which shall require a two-thirds majority vote:
 - (i) approval of by-laws, or the amendment or repeal of by-laws; and
 - (ii) borrowing by the Association in excess of $10,000.
- (d) The Chairman shall only vote in the case of a tie.

10. A demand for vote by ballot or proxy may be withdrawn.

Proxies

- 11. (a) A member may vote in person or by proxy at any annual or special meeting.
- (b) A member present in person shall have one vote on a show of hands and, in addition, may have one vote for every proxy held by the member.
- (c) On a vote by ballot, every member present in person shall have one vote and, in addition, may have one vote for every proxy held by the member.
- (d) A member may appoint as proxy any other member of the Association.
- (e) Each form appointing a proxy shall be filed with the Secretary not less than two (2) business days prior to the annual or special meeting, and shall be verified by the Secretary prior to such meeting being opened.
- (f) A form appointing a proxy shall be in writing and signed by the appointer or the appointer's attorney and shall be in the form provided in Appendix "B" or to like effect.
- (g) The Chairman may vote proxies.

12. All meetings of the members of the Association shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.
13. Only members of the Institute in good standing have the right to vote on Institute issues in accordance with its by-laws.

V. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Term

1. (a) The President and Vice-President shall hold office for a minimum of one year, and a maximum of two years or until their successors are elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws.
(b) The Secretary and Treasurer and other members of the Board shall hold office for two years, or until their successors are elected or appointed in accordance with the provision of these by-laws.

Re-election

2. Subject to paragraph 6 (a) of this Part, every retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election or reappointment.

Executive Committee

3. The immediate past President and the provincial representative to the National Governing Council of the Institute shall be ex-officio members of the Executive Committee in addition to those named under subsection 9 (2) of the Act.

Disqualification of Members of Board

4. A member of the Board shall no longer qualify as a member of the Board if the member (a) makes an assignment in bankruptcy under the provisions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, is the subject of the filing of a receiving order, makes a proposal in bankruptcy, or applies for a consolidation order;

- (b) is found to be of unsound mind;
- (c) ceases to be a member in good standing of the Association.
- (d) by notice to the President resigns from office, provided the resignation is accepted by the President;
- (e) resigns from membership in the Association
- (f) is convicted of a criminal offence proceeded with by way of indictment;
- (g) ceases to be a resident of Nova Scotia; or
- (h) is removed from office under the provisions of paragraph 5

Removal From Office

5. The Association may, by a majority vote of members present at a special or annual meeting of the Association called for such purpose, remove for cause from office any member of the Board.

Duties of Officers

6. (a) President

The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Association and shall be responsible for its general management. The President shall preside at all meetings of members of the Association and of the Board and shall see that all orders, resolutions and regulations of the Association and Board are carried into effect. The office of President shall not be held by any one person for more than two years in succession.

(b) Vice-President

The Vice-President, in the absence or disability of the President, shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President, and shall perform such other related duties as may be imposed by the Board.

(c) Treasurer

The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of all funds and securities of the Association which shall be deposited in the name of the Association in such bank or financial institutions or with such depository as the Board may direct. Subject to Part II, sections 3 and 4, and unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board, the Treasurer shall approve all cheques, drafts, notes and orders for the payment of money, and shall pay out and dispose of the same under the direction of the Board. The Treasurer shall, at all reasonable times, exhibit the books and accounts of the Association to any member of the Board upon application at the office of the Association during business hours. The Treasurer shall sign and countersign such instruments as require signatures or countersignature, and shall perform such other related duties incident to the office of Treasurer or that are properly required by the Board. The Treasurer shall be required to give such bond for the faithful performance of duties as the Board may require; provided that no member of the Board shall be liable for failure to require any bond or pledge, or for the insufficiency of any bond, or for any loss by reason of the failure of the Association to receive any indemnity thereby provided.

(d) Secretary

The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board and the Association, and shall record all votes and take minutes of all proceedings; give or cause to be given, notice of all meetings, and shall perform such other related duties as may be decided by the Board or the President of the Association. The Secretary shall have charge of all books and documents of the Association, except those which are the responsibility of the Treasurer, and shall sign with the President or other signing officer or officers of the Association, such documents as require signature. The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, a book containing a copy of all By-laws, resolutions and rules enacted by the Association, or by the Board, and copies of minutes of all meetings of the Board, special and annual meetings of the Association, and minutes of committee meetings.

(e) The Board Shall Appoint a Registrar

The Registrar shall maintain and keep up to date a record of:

- (i) the names, listed alphabetically, of all persons who are or have been members of the Association;
- (ii) the addresses and calling of such members, as far as can be reasonably ascertained;
- (iii) the names, addresses and calling of all persons who are or have been members of the Board or officers of the Association, with the dates as which each became or ceased to hold office.

(f) The Board Shall Appoint an Executive Director

The Board may delegate to the Executive Director such duties of the Treasurer, Secretary and Registrar as it decides is appropriate from time to time and may require that the Executive Director be bonded for the faithful performance of duties.

(c) Notice

Notice of time and place of all Board meetings, except the first meeting after the annual meeting, shall be delivered, mailed, faxed or telephoned to all Board members not less than fourteen days before the date of the meeting.

(d) Declaration of Notice

A Declaration signed by the Executive Director shall be conclusive evidence of sending all required notices. The non-receipt of a notice by a member of the Board shall not invalidate the proceedings at any meeting.

(e) Waiver

Any irregularity in any notice of a meeting of the Board may be waived by the Board member concerned.

(f) First Meeting of Board

The first meeting of the Board shall be held as soon as possible after the annual meeting. The meeting shall be deemed to be legally constituted if a quorum of Board members is present.

(g) Minutes

Minutes of all meetings of the Board shall be delivered to all members of the Board.

(h) Quorum

A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

(i) Adjournment

The President or person acting as chairperson of the meeting may, with the consent of members of the Board, adjourn the meeting from time to time, and no notice of such adjournment need be given to the members of the Board. Any business may be brought before and dealt with at any adjourned meeting which might have been brought before and dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the meeting.

(j) Voting

Each member of the Board shall be entitled to one vote at Board meetings with the exception of the Chairman who can only vote in the case of a tie.

(j) Form of Meeting

The Board may conduct meetings by conference telephone or other electronic medium if two-thirds of the members of the Board agree, and any business conducted at such meeting shall be as conclusive and final as if conducted at a meeting with members personally present.

VI. ELECTION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS
